Treasurers Report: Was Given

Secretary read the minutes and they were approved.

Committee Report:

Safety:

Rudy will have a sign up sheet for next meeting. He will also have medical and inspection sheets for us to fill out. He encouraged everyone that has a road worthy truck to show up. Steve explained the importance of safety meeting. On a side note Rudy was able to get the Corvette rear end installed.

National Council:

Nothing to report this month

North/South:

Rich Miller will be going to the Feb 20 planning meeting. He didn't realize that he had been elected to represent OC PUL, I'm sure he will have good info to give.

Public Relations/Activities:

Jeff's fun run was the topic for the evening, Chris showed us the window cards that he had make up and for those who weren't sure how to play poker, he explained the basic concept of the game. He spoke of the different stops. We will be starting at Ken Grody Ford, then heading to CPP, then Dan Chucks, then Crevier Motors, then True Speed, and finally end up at John Force race station. He explained everyone's duties. He also mentioned that motorcycles are welcome to come. Anyone working the event must wear the event shirt. We will have a meeting at 7am to get organized. Best hand gets a roller bearing Craftsman tool box. Ron will be running the 50/50 raffle. In February, there is the safety inspection, Winter Nationals, and Hilco super bowl car show.

Western Nationals:

Keep passing out flyers. What ever you did last year, that's what you will be doing this year. Ed also mentioned that we are getting a lot of media attention.

Old Business:

- If you want one of the new OC plaques, contact Ed.

New Business:

- Birthdays for December, Larry L, Ellie, Chris T, Larry T.
- It was 1yr to the day that Jeff passed, Rich, Mas & Dianne, Bill, Ed drove out to visit Jeff's burial place. They dressed up Jeff's plaque with a club plaque and some flags. Ed took pictures that can be viewed on the club web page. It was a good nice sunny day and they all had a good time reminiscing.
- We wanted everyone to say a prayer for Gene Wolcott. He's dealing with lung cancer and will be undergoing surgery on the 19th. Keep him in your thoughts and prayers.
- We also wanted to wish Bill Balthasar a speedy recovery after his knee surgery.

Meeting adjourned at 8:25 pm.

Respectively submitted by your Secretary
