Next meeting is in May. Rich invited anyone who wanted to go to join him.

North/South:

Rich Miller and Bill Crisel went to planning meeting in San Louis Obispo. He learned that PUL really didn't have much say in the planning. Pickups Elites already have everything planed, they want to keep the show more traditional and not worry so much about profits. They will be including an event cup in the goody bags. It does sound like some good things are planed. They got home about 530pm
