Public Relations/Activities:

The Western Nationals was the main topic of activities. Chris explained the cruise route for Friday. He will depart from the Ayres Suites in Yorba Linda at 9:00am for a great day of driving and site seeing. They will blast down the '55 freeway to Newport Beach, look at the boats as they take a short cruise south on PCH through some other high-rent beach areas. There will be a stop over in down town Laguna Beach so the ladies can do some shopping or even playing in the sand. Then inland for lunch at Cooks Corner which is a World War II-era-mess-hall-turned-biker-bar. After lunch they will finish up the cruise with a private tour of the World Famous John Force Race Station. Also mentioned was San Diego's Fords & Friends and the Fountain Valley Car Show. Dale needed some help with parking volunteers.

Western Nationals:

Everyone should have received a work schedule. Get together with your fellow coworkers and come with shifts so you get a chance to see all the trucks. We have 160 registered so far, we are hiring some help for set up and tear down. The tee shirts are done. We also had new club tee shirts made for the event. Ed wanted to remind everyone to be an ambassador for the show, mingle with the people, and make some new friends. On Friday, we will meet at park about 8:00a.m., and hopefully be done by 3:00p.m. with all the set up stuff. Ed will be sending live updates from his phone to the web. Ed also explained how your entry fee we paid will get you about $46 in items which also include a meal.

Old Business:

- Club dues, Chris made a comment about how the dues pay for many items. You get more then what you pay for in the long run.

New Business:

- Birthdays for June, Julie P, Donna S, Carl.
- Steve wants to pick a local cruise for the club to hang out on regular bases. Garden Grove and Rubies were mentioned, nothing final yet.
- Glenn got the club a new banner.
- Carl showed off his newly painted & assembled truck.
- Steve brought his project truck in, it needs a few hood adjustments.
- The holiday party was brought up for discussion. We are trying to plan it early this year, not sure where yet though. More to come.

Meeting adjourned at 8:35 p.m.

Respectively submitted by your Secretary
